

Thank you

To the editor: I was very pleased and proud that the March issue of CJEM published an announcement of my appointment as Campus Dean East (Sudbury) for the new Northern Ontario Medical School (NOMS).<sup>1</sup> My special thanks go to Garth Dickinson for the warmth and personal touch of his article.

Life is, however, full of surprises. In the same week as I received my copy of CJEM with the announcement, I was in the process of submitting my resignation to NOMS. In my 2 months on the job I met some wonderful people and got started on several interesting projects. The support of the communities, all across Northern Ontario, for NOMS is quite remarkable. I wish them all success for the medical school, and only regret that I can no longer be part of it. Unfortunately, unforeseen circumstances arose that made me realize that I would not be able to fulfil my mandate as Campus Dean in a manner acceptable to my standards and to the needs of the medical school, so I felt that I had to withdraw.

As I spend the next little while thinking about the future, it is a great comfort for me to know that my friends and colleagues in emergency medicine across the country are there to listen and to help if I need them. I think we are very lucky to have such a sense of community in emergency medicine, and we should do everything we can to maintain and develop it. In spite of the many challenges we face, emergency medicine is a great and rewarding career. If anyone else is thinking about changing jobs, just remember that there is really “no place like home.”

My thanks again to CJEM and to CAEP, and my greetings to all.
