

CAEP Awards Call for Nominations

Competition Deadlines: March 1, 2012
Nominations sent to: awards@caep.ca

For complete award criteria, please visit: caep.ca

CAEP President's Award

The CAEP President's award recognizes a CAEP member who has made a significant contribution to CAEP and its members. The individual will have demonstrated a commitment to the organization through activities that have had a direct impact on CAEP.

Nominations sent to: admin@caep.ca

Dr. Alan Drummond Advocacy Award

The Dr. Alan Drummond Advocacy Award recognizes a CAEP member who has demonstrated exemplary leadership, commitment, and dedication to the cause of advancing the discipline at the regional, national or international level through advocacy efforts.

Dr. Helen Karounis Memorial Award for Professionalism in Emergency Medicine

The Dr. Helen Karounis Memorial Award recognizes a CAEP resident or staff physician member who practices emergency medicine (pediatric, adult, or general emergency medicine) and upholds the highest standards of Professionalism.

CAEP Award for Medical Journalism

The primary focus of any submission must be emergency medicine. Reports from any journalistic media including print, TV, and Radio are eligible. The competition is open to journalists working for Canadian newspapers, magazines, television stations, radio stations, wire services and networks with the exception of specialty/trade publications. The competition is also open to freelance journalists whose submitted work has been published or broadcast in Canada.

Resident Leadership Award – CCFP (EM) and FRCPC

The nominee and nominator must be CAEP members in good standing. The Resident nominee must currently be in good standing in an accredited Canadian FRCPC, CFPC-EM, or Pediatric EM residency program, or enrolled in an EM-related fellowship. The individual must have made an outstanding contribution to the development of Canadian EM or the betterment of Canadian EM residents. Important qualities include leadership skills, effective teaching, contagious enthusiasm, innovation and role modeling. Previous recipients are not eligible.

Teacher of the Year

The nominee and nominator must be CAEP members in good standing. The nominee should be actively involved in teaching residents, and must have made an outstanding contribution to teaching or to the development of EM education in Canada within the last year. Previous recipients are not eligible.