

CAEP | Canadian Association
of Emergency Physicians

ACMU | Association canadienne
des médecins d'urgence

Its never too late ...

to join or renew your CAEP membership.

A CAEP membership allows you:

- To access, at a reduced rate, our in demand Roadshows and Conference
- To receive a print version of our journal with no interruptions
- The opportunity to apply for research funding through our competitive grant competition
- To nominate colleagues for prestigious CAEP awards – as well as being nominated yourself
- To network with peers not only nationally but internationally through participation on CAEPs distinguished Committees, Sections and Interest Groups and at CAEP events.

To CAEP, your membership means:

- A commitment to providing excellence in emergency medicine care to Canadians through leadership, education, and advocacy
- We grow and advocate with a stronger more unified voice and an increased ability to strengthen CAEP's position as a leader in emergency medicine
- We will have the resources necessary to create more CME Roadshows, guidelines, and have more tools to assist you.
