

CAEP 2019 Abstract Awards

Grant Innes Research Paper and Presentation Award#	Awarded to the CAEP member who submits the highest-ranked research abstract. The Grant Innes Research Paper and Presentation is an award created in honour of Dr. Grant Innes, Founding Editor-in-Chief of the Canadian Journal of Emergency Medicine (CJEM). The recipient will have their abstract published in CJEM as the Grant Innes Research Paper and will be the first presentation CAEP annual conference research plenary.	$500
Top Resident Research Abstract Award	Awarded to the EM resident member who submits the highest-ranked research abstract	$500
Top Education Innovation Abstract Award	The top 3 abstracts submitted by CAEP members will present in a CAEP 2019 education track, where the winner will be selected by the audience. The winner will receive the $250 award but no other compensation will be provided to the presenters.	$500
Resident Research Abstract Awards (seven per year)	Awarded to the next seven highest-ranked research abstracts from EM resident members.	$250 (each)
Top New Investigator Abstract Award	Awarded to the CAEP member who submits the highest-ranked research abstract and is within five years of appointment at the level of assistant professor. Only those appointed at the assistant professor level are eligible.	$250
Top Pediatric Abstract Award	Awarded to the highest-ranked research abstract from a CAEP member in the EM pediatrics category.	$250
CAEP-CanVECTOR Research Abstract Awards (two per year)	Awarded to the two highest-ranked research abstracts from CAEP members for a research study that aims to reduce VTE occurrence, improve VTE diagnosis and therapeutic management, improve the safety of anticoagulant delivery, or enhance the quality of life of those impacted by VTE in the emergency care setting.	$250 (each)
Top Medical Student Research Abstract Award	Awarded to the highest-ranked research abstract from a medical student member.	$250
Top QIPS Abstract Award	Awarded to the highest-ranked abstract from a CAEP member in the Quality Improvement & Patient Safety (QIPS) category.	$250