I have reviewed the above photograph(s) in which I am included. I understand that my name will not be published and that all possible efforts will be made to ensure my anonymity, but that anonymity cannot be guaranteed, especially for images that include distinctive features. Images must not show patient faces in an identifiable way. I have the right to refuse to sign this consent form without affecting my care (patients) or my education experience (learners) in any way.

Accepted images will be made publicly available through an open access webpage hosted in partnership with the Canadian Association of Emergency Physicians (CAEP). They may be seen by the public, published, reproduced, modified, exhibited and used anywhere worldwide without payment or further consent. The photo may be published on the cover of the Canadian Journal of Emergency Medicine.

I consent to these images and non-identifying clinical information being included in the Canadian Association of Emergency Physicians Images in Emergency Medicine competition. This may include images of my face (not for patients) or distinctive body features which might make me identifiable even though my name will not be published:
